The Unitarian Church of Ithaca offices could be used in a variety of different film projects. Although they are currently personalized, they could be set decorated to accommodate the dramatic or comedic. It is worth noting that the upstairs office faces nearby buildings, giving it a clearly urban setting. Possible filming options for this location might include a sitcom or legal drama. Additionally, the conference rooms and nursery provide enough space for a mid-sized cast & crew. The attached annex and sanctuary offer additional storage/location possibilities.

The offices at Bethel Grove Church also have the potential to be used in various types of projects, but the office(s) found here appear slightly more homey. These might be more suited for use in a dramatic work, possibly as a home office. (Office 2 might even work as a psychiatrist's office with room provided for a couch.) Furthermore, there is a variety of conference rooms/sitting areas scattered in the office building. There is even an easily accessible upstairs kitchen and a downstairs living area (pictures on following slide). This opens up location possibilities as well. The main church building is across the parking lot.
